Re: MUR 4916
Kazyak v. Keyes 2000, Inc.

Dear Ms. Smith:

This letter follows our telephone conversation of Tuesday, August 31, 1999 regarding the complaint filed by Kristin Kazyak against Keyes 2000, Inc., the principal campaign committee of Alan L. Keyes, who is a candidate for the nomination of the Republican Party for President of the United States.

Enclosed is a Statement of Designation of Counsel by the President of the committee, Mary Parker Lewis wherein I am identified as counsel for the committee.

This letter is to request an enlargement of time of 14 days within which to file a response to the complaint pursuant to Rule 6(b)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, upon a showing of good cause shown.

Due to the press of business and my trial calendar and in order to properly respond to this, the second complaint filed with the FEC by Ms. Kazyak arising out of the very same transactions, the additional time is needed. We submit that grant of this request will not inure to the detriment of the complainant and will not prejudice her in any other way.
